Adams Power Printing Press and Printing Materials for Sale.

WE have for sale an A 1 Adams Power Printing Press, in good order, a Card Cutting Machine: a Standing Press and Boards; and an assortment of Newspaper and Job Type. We sell these materials for no fault, but for the reason that we use a Cylinder Press, and have a superabundance of the other material mentioned. We are thus able to fit out a country office, which we can do on terms very favorable those who may wish to purchase. Also, a Lady Franklin Job Press. Address

The Cash System.

After mature deliberation the Publishers of this paper have determined to adopt the step by the heavy losses experienced from Every step shall be contested; every rivulet run red CASH SYSTEM. They have been led to this debts scattered throughout the State, which they have been unable to collect, the necessity which compels them to pay cash for labor in the printing office, for paper and other supplies, and the general adoption of the system on the part of leading houses in all branches of trade and industry. The cash system, necessary to protect us, will also be beneficial to punctual subscribers, inasmuch as it will rid us of the expense entailed by non-paying subscribers, and enable us to reduce the price of our weekly paper. From this date, therefore, we shall enter the name of no person on our books as a subscriber, unless he pays for his paper in advance. And paid in advance. Our weekly paper will be ready paid in advance beyond the 1st day of reduction from that date. We shall keep this notice standing in our columns until the 1st of July, and, on that day, erase every delinquent from our list.

THE AQUIA CREEK AFFAIR .- We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter received in this city, from a young gentleman in Captain CHENEY'S company, by his father, who witnessed the fight at Aquia Creek:

"No man in our battery was killed, although 572 shots were fired by the enemy. It was the first battle I ever saw, and it was a magnificent scene. Whilst the firing was gowhich, fell in the battery, and young Yancey, from Georgia, who went to the Military College with me, caught it up in his hands and threw it out. Young Pat. Robertson, of Nashville, had command of one of the guns, and used it very well."

The present daily average expenses of the The present daily average expenses of the federal government are estimated by some at a million of dollars a day. A prominent financier of New York reckons them at twelve hundred thousand a day. The cost is enhanced by the difficulty of securing accountability on the part of contractors and also by the extortion of those upon whom the government has been obliged to decore the government has been obliged to depend for supplies, transportation, &c. A protracted war requires, as we have seen in the experi-

July, 1861, will be allowed the benefit of this I learn, to-day, that the usual demand for ar audience of the Emperor has been made, and that Mr. Dayton will, in all probability, be afforded on Sunday next an opportunity to present his letters of credence, and will imnediately afterwards enter upon the discharge of his official duties.

The Moniteur of yesterday announced at the head of its columns that on Sunday last, at 2 o'clock, Mr. Chas. J. Faulkner, Minister of the United States, was received by the Emperor in audience of conge, and placed in the the Salle du Trone (Throne Room), His Majesty wearing the uniform of a General of the Imperial Household. At the termination of his interview with the Emperor, Mr Faulkner took leave also of the Empress in a saloon overlooking the garden of the Tuil-

I understand that on the occasion of this a very deep solicitation in regard to the present condition of affairs in the United States, and with much earnestness inquired of M Faulsner whether he thought the friendly mediation of France would be acceptable Mr. Faulkner said he had neither the means of information nor the authority to speak of that point; but, certainly, if the friendly interpos tion of any Power in Europe would be acceptable it would be that of France—a na- R. Mr. Faulkuer thought such an offer would, in any event, do bonor to the Emperor. His Mujesty expressed his tears that was now too late for such mediation; but de clared that nothing could give him greater pleasure than to be in any way the means of effecting a reconciliation-a result so import ant not only to the interests of civilization but to the interests of France.

> We heard yesterday evening, from George Akers, Esq., of Nushville, Tenn., who had ust returned from Manassas Gap, where he had been to see several of his brothers who are in the Confederate States army, that four spies were brought to Fairfax Court House yesterday morning, and thence conveyed to the jail of Fauquier county for safe keeping. The same gentleman reports that our troops in that vicin ty are ready for any demonstra tion the Lincolnites may see fit to make. It is believed now that the death of Captain Marr was caused by the firing of some of his own men, who had not time to join their comrades on the first alarm caused by the approach of the enemy, and who fired at ran-dom as they rushed up out of the church, where they were, to join their comrades. If the surmise is correct, they committed a sad and irreparable blunder. Only one of the spies mentioned as having been arrested had on uniform. The horses taken by the Confederate troops in the recent action are splendid animals. Sundry fine pistols, swords, Sharp's rifles, &c., also changed owners on that occasion -- Richmond Examiner.

We are informed that on yesterday the Ministers of the District waited on Mr. Lincoln in a body to urge a course of reconciliation and peace, and that he replied that the platform on which he was elected should be carried out if it cost the lives of a million of men .- Alexandria (Va.) Sentinel.
